

This manual is dedicated to

His Divine Grace

A. C. Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada

and his faithful followers.

This manual was compiled under the inspiration of

H. H. Radhanath Swami Maharaj

Grihastha ashram is an important and integral aspect of the Daivi Varnashram system. This manual on Grihastha ashram is based on information culled from the writings of Srila Prabhupada in his valuable purports in Srimad Bhagavatam, Bhagavad- Gita, his lectures and letters and contributions from several leading devotees of ISKCON.

This manual is being released on 11th April 2003, the most auspicious day of Rama Navami
at
Sri Sri Radha Gopinath Mandir,
Girgaum Chopwatty, Mumbai – 400 007.

CONTENTS

- PART I -

1	Vedic Culture and Varnashrama Dharma	1
1.1	Vedic culture & Grihasthasram	1
1.2	The goal of the grihastha ashrama and other ashramas.....	2
2	Differentiation of the ashramas based on the strength of renunciation and means of livelihood	3
2.1	The Importance of Grihastha ashrama	3
2.2	Grihamedhi vs Grihastha	4
2.3	The status of Grihastha ashrama and Varna ashrama systems	4
3	Duties and responsibilities in general in grihastha ashrama.	4
4	Debts in Grihastha Ashrama	5
5	Way of living in Grihastha life	5
6	Grihastha and Deity worship.....	6
6.1	How to earn one's livelihood in grihastha ashram: Do's and Don't's	7
7	Giving in charity - A sacred duty in Grihastha ashram	7
8	Serving guests/ Dealings with others	7
8.1	How to offer hospitality? The right consciousness	7
8.2	Serving elders/parents	8
8.3	Dealing with other living entities	9
8.4	Dealing with servants/subordinates	9
8.5	Distributing prasada to persons who have not taken to Krishna Consciousness How should grihasthas deal with beggars?	10
8.6	Dealings of Grihastha Men with Women	10
8.7	Dealings of Grihastha Men with Brahmacharis & Sanyasis	10
8.8	Dealing of Grihastha Women with Men	11
8.9	Dealings of grihastha women with brahmacharis & sanyasis	11
8.10	Keeping pets	11
9	What should be the consciousness of a grihastha Devotee about having no children / begetting a son / daughter ?	11
10	What should be the consciousness of a devotee couple who decides not to have a child ?..	12
11	Duties towards children in Grihastha ashram	12
12	How to sustain and safeguard Krishna Consciousness of devotee children?	12
12.1	Parents should not allow their children to fail	14
13	Samskaras	14
14	The position of a woman in Varnashrama system	14
14.1	How is a woman to be treated in Varnashrama system?	15
14.2	A woman is always protected	15
14.3	Duties of a husband	16
14.4	Duties of a wife in a grihastha ashram	17

14.5	A wife makes grihasthä ashram safe	18
14.6	Serving one's husband:	18
	Anusuya advises Sita	18
	Queen Draupadi advises Satyabhama	18
14.7	Chaste wife has a share in the spiritual advancement of her husband	20
15	Key to success in the grihastha ashram	21
16	Grooming children important activities for householders	21

- PART II -

■	Success in the Grihastha Asrama	23
■	Guidelines for selecting one's partner	23
■	Six thumb rules	23
■	Understanding the Male Ego	23
■	General Psychology	24
■	Man's Psychology	24
■	Women's Psychology	24
■	Typical Challenges and situations faced by Grihastha couples in Krishna Consciousness and possible solutions	25
1	Couple married before coming to Krishna Consciousness:	25
2	One spouse in Krishna Consciousness before marriage and the other not:	25
3	Both devotees before getting married:	27
	(i) Staying with parents	27
	(ii) Lack of sensitivity	28
	(iii) Poor communication	31
	(iv) Lack of respect / trust	32
	(v) a. Husband and wife speak with each other rudely	32
	b. Husband speaks very rudely to his wife in the presence of his parents	32
	(vi) Only one partner wants a child	33
	(vii) Complacency after marriage	34
	(viii) Immature understanding of one's social responsibility	34
	(ix) Not Understanding one's role in Marriage	35
	(x) Imperfect understanding of devotional service\ neglecting house-hold duties	36
	(xi) Comparing one's spouse to other devotees	37
	(xii) Making the husband feel small	37
	(xiii) Nagging	38
	(xiv) Washing dirty linen in public	38
	(xv) Not respecting one's wife.	38
	(xvi) Difference of opinion in bringing up one's child	39
	(xvii) The husband and the wife blame each other for lack of progress in their Krishna consciousness	40